

International
Labour
Organization

International
Co-operative Alliance
Committee on
Co-operative Research

ILO, ICA and CSEND SIDE EVENT AT THE FIFTH GLOBAL REVIEW OF AID FOR TRADE

“Promoting Cooperative-to-cooperative trade for sustainable development”

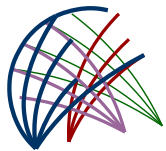

1 July, 2015 16.30-18.00

Room D, WTO, Geneva

Questions to Address

- 1. What are the trade related problems and challenges faced by enterprises in globalizing economy? How do cooperative enterprises contribute to addressing some of these pressing trade issues?
- 2. What are the benefits of cooperative-to-cooperative cross border trade? In particular, what are the added benefits for developing and least developed countries?
- 3. How do fair trade and similar partnership approaches to trade including the alliance with cooperative help lower trade costs?
- 4. How can cooperative enterprises help developing and least developed countries accelerate integration into global and regional value chains?

Panellists

1. H.E. Amb. Eloi Laourou, Permanent Mission of Benin to the UN
2. Aly Khan Jamal, Expert Advisor, Dalberg Global Dev. Advisors
3. Sergi Corbalan, Exe. Dir. For Fair Trade Advocacy Office
4. Mr. Zhang Wangshu, Managing Dir. International Coop Dept. All China Fed. Of Supply & Marketing Cooperatives
5. Rodrigo Gouveia, Policy Director, ICA
6. Prof. Raymond Saner, Director, Diplomacydialogue/CSEND

Co-Chairs

- Mrs. Simel Esim, Ph.D. Head and Senior Technical Specialist at the Cooperatives Unit, ILO
- Mrs. Lichia Saner Yiu, Ed.D., President, CSEND