

Challenges for the 21st Century for Leadership Qualifications: Reflections and Responses

By Dr. Raymond Saner and Dr. Lichia Yiu

Abstract: This article focuses on the assumed impact of globalisation, especially in the field of business and trade, how globalisation will affect public and private sector leadership and hence indirectly leaders in society. Subsequent to some reflections on the impact of globalisation on leadership, the article postulates a few key changes which developments in the world economy might have on leadership theory and practice.
